INDOOR RECORDS ARE SHORT IN MEASURE

Athletes Run Close to the Pole and Steal About Thirty Yards.

NEW YORK, March 3.—The new world's indoor Marathon record, made by Thure Johansen, the new Swedish wonder, in a race at the Sixty-ninth Regiment armory here this week, is being questioned by some athletic experts. The expert that the whole system of measurement in relation to board tracks in this country is wrong.

In this country the circuits of indoor ovals do not run eighteen inches from the curb, as those who measure the tracks would have us believe," says Al Copeland, the timer, a veteran of the track.

"They run on the pole, and this was the case in the recent Marathon. This would warrant a cutting of the course by at least thirty yards to the mile."

"It is notable that many athletes who have shown record-breaking form in their indoor races have been unable to make equally good performances on the finest outdoor dirt and clay paths."

PROMINENT TURFMAN PASSES TO GREAT BEYOND

CHICAGO, March 3.—Percy Taylor, familiar name to Chicago turf circles for many years, died yesterday at his Fox River farm near Elgin. Mr. Taylor was born at Portsmouth, England, fifty-nine years ago.

He came to this country in 1890 and identified himself with the breeding and raising of thoroughbreds. On his farm near Rome, Ind., he bred many horses which were frequent winners.

HIGH SCHOOL NEED OF ATHLETIC CAMPU

Coach Conville Says It Will Take About $1200 to Fit Up New Grounds.

If the plans of Coach "Dad" Conville are carried out, the high school will have a new athletic field, which will be one of the best in the state. The poor campus has been a great drawback in past years and this hindrance will be eliminated if possible. It is planned to construct a quarter-mile track on the north half of the school grounds and to fence the campus with an eight-foot board fence.

Coach Conville says that the new grounds will cost about $1200. The new grounds will be one of the best in the state. The poor campus has been a great drawback in past years and this hindrance will be eliminated if possible.

COACH TAYLOR TO HAVE STRONG L. D. S. TEAM

There will be doings in baseball at the L. D. S. university this season. Wednesday afternoon an enthusiastic meeting was held in Barratt hall where a plan of action to be followed by the baseball team was adopted.

The plan was to have a strong team and to retain the championship. George Taylor, who coached the basketball team the past season, will coach the baseball squad, work having already commenced.

Jesse Sharp, the youthful manager of the basketball team, has been chosen to manage the affairs of the baseball team. The faculty of the L. D. S. is taking a noticeable interest in the team and is desirous that this year's lineup be the best ever.

Capitol hill will be used this year for practice grounds by the saints.

Provo, from present indications, will not be entered in the Collegiate league. It was thought at first that this school had chosen to manage the affairs of the team.

VARSTY ATHLETES START SPRING WORK

Students Commence Training for Field and Track; Mad-dock Has Good Material.

All the university athletes responded to the first call for spring training Thursday afternoon for field and track work, and Coach Maddock was greatly pleased with the material at hand from which to select his team. Many of the men are new at the varsity, though several of them have done good work on the high school teams of the state.

Sam Brinton, captain of the track team this year, and Swapp are really the leaders of the old men on the team who have served on the varsity teams more than two years.

The men were divided into squads for the different stunts in the squad for the sprints were Brinton, Carmichael, Walker, Belnap and Monson. The distance squad was composed of Alley, Cole, Neil Judd, Shields and Woolf, each of whom did good work for the first day out.

In the weights Swapp, Sam Oleson and "Count" Christensen showed good form, and although "Count" is new at the varsity, he has made good in football and will likely make the positions for the shot put. For the pole vault, Erickson, Anderson and Taylor will try to make good.
